GOLFCLUB KAMPENHOUT

President's Word

Kamphenhout

October 13th, 2023

Buddha was as efficient as ever. Very good summer gear weather with 24° and no rain while playing, it gently waited about 30 min. after we finished... ain't that nice !

It was the lowest attendance of the year, only 20 players and again several changes to give Yves some brainwork with the starting list. Two of these were faithful committee members. Jean Jacques Simons and Mark Welby hit by the new variant of this nasty Covid virus, and I can assure you by experience how hard it can be.

3 flights of 3 and 2 of 4 in the fields of this flat not very difficult course with wide fairways apart from the tricky narrow holes 3 & 4.

This scramble enjoys everyone. A more relaxed game in teamplay. Watch out for Rigenée where it will be some more stressful in the formula we will play but very nice too.

I don't need to tell you who was our starter of course (thanks Yves) and the sponsors were yourself just like it will be at our closing meeting. So many thanks to all of you.

Prizes were bottles of wine from our strategic reserve and bought some months ago and selected by our resigning Vice-President Dany Payeur. The two first teams were compensated and a usual lottery was held for the ten remaining players.

So Yves quickly wrote their names on small pieces of paper. I want to add this funny anecdote.

An innocent hand !!! Annick Phillipin drew ... herself (funny) and then innocently I said loudly before she took the next paper ...Swaelens !!! ... and she did... laughter everywhere of course.

There was absolutely no cheating involved.

Next meeting is at Rigenée on 27th of October.

The formula is an AM-AM in flights of 3 and each team will designate his Captain. The score of the Cpt will count on every hole and the best score of the 2 others on each hole will be added. So make your own team and good luck to all of you. Sponsors are again yourself.

Afterwards we hold our General Assembly followed by our closing dinner and the choice of main course is on the starting list.

A mail about the AG and schedule of the evening will be sent later.
