Enghien 17 August 2026

Enghien is a very interesting course to play, very different and many strategic holes, quite long and most of the greens very large. The fairways were as everywhere, very dry and hard. It was often preferable to be in the first rough as it gave a "cushion" of burned grass and this was easier to play than the hard fairways. Of course placing allowed often to find a softer place nearby. The greens were top, soft, fast and pitched very nicely due to regular watering. All liked this course and it will be on the program next year again.

25 players on the field: 4 Ladies, 9 Men2 and 12 Men1. We had a Marshall of Enghien amongst us and he wasn't very happy with some slow play by some (including my flight). We were reprimanded by our severe Marshal, also a member and sponsor of the competition together with Annie Arys. Next year he must play in the first flight (joking of course).

The weather was great, really excellent to play golf, mostly cloudy with around 23°. Annie Arys and the secretary prepared the score cards for us, which was a nice help for Yves although some cards had to be rectified because the score cards of some Men1 were calculated from the Bleu tees (53) i.s.o yellow (59). Yves corrected this on the spot, of course.

Many thanks to our sponsors Annie & Jo for their excellent "cuvée Clara rosé" wines. Note that the green fee of 70€ is a very nice price for this beautiful course and as a reminder, I had to pay them all together in stead of our Treasurer who was in Argentina finishing the last three pounders of T-bone & Tomahawks steaks of the country. So every player present should refund 70€ to the SNGG account.

One more thing if you wish to order a blue SNGG polo please let us know we will order them again as soon as the minimum of 5 items is reached. Some of you are already on the list that you can find under the tab POLOS of the starting list.

Next meeting is at Mormal on the 4th of September. Have some space available in your bag to pick up some apples (if you wish).

Note: no sponsor yet. So, if anyone or group wishes to care for the prizes (partially refunded), contact one of the committee members, please.

Check also on our site the changes in the program of the next competitions. Rigenée and Millenium are swaped. The end of season diner and General Assembly is moved to Falnuée. The golf course and the facilities have been fully restored.
